Hike Time: 1.5-2 hours for round trip hike based on difficulty level

$110 / student - all materials and guided hike included

Minimum 6 students, Maximum 15*

*can be adjusted on case by case

Kimball Studio Art + Adventure

This package combines an inspiring and eye opening adventure with art making. Groups can choose to create before or after their outdoor excursion. This experience can also include a gallery tour given by Kimball Art Center Curator Nancy Stoaks, for an additional $5 per student Art first: Students will learn the basics of bookbinding and construct their own artful journal. These journals will be carried on the hike to capture observations made from nature, in the form of notes or drawings. Students can write their inspiring thoughts while taking in the beauty of the landscape. The teaching artist will give support on how to draw from nature.

Hike first: The teaching artist will guide students to notice and find inspiration in nature throughout the hike, lead by Mountain Vista Touring - taking it all in - looking for colors, textures, and patterns. Students might find a cool stick, rock or leaf along the way to bring back into the studio to spark creativity or to use in the art making process. Once back at the Kimball, students will be taught how to convey some of that energy or the feeling of a place onto a canvas.

Art Time: 1.5-2 hours

Hike Time: 1.5-2 hours for round trip hike based on difficulty level

$105/student for bookmaking and guided hike

$95/student for creating on canvas and guided hike

All materials included

Minimum 6 students, Maximum 12

Plein Air Painting at Copper Moose Farms

This package includes plein air painting on location at Copper Moose Farms. Copper Moose is a beautiful example of local, organic farming right here in our own backyard! Views of the Park City ridgeline and painting amongst the fields are sure to inspire your inner artist. Farming is a form of artistry and Copper Moose is a wonderful example of this. Students will learn how to paint the landscape around them. Instruction will be from a local experienced artist. Students will paint with acrylic on a canvas panel and take home their own masterpiece. Students are highly encouraged to enjoy a delicious local lunch at the farm stand immediately following the class. After lunch, pick up a bag of greens, a growler of Kombucha, stick bread and some Wasatch Creamery ice cream to take home.

Painting Time: 1.5-2 Hours

Lunch Time: .5-1 hour

Days available: Tuesday or Thursday between 12pm - 6pm | Saturdays between 12pm - 3pm

$80/student, all materials included, lunch, refreshments and other goodies available for purchase at the Farm Stand to top off your experience!
