professional artist development

For practicing artists, these drop-in weekly classes provide an opportunity to learn from other artists in a peer-to-peer setting. Students can expect to provide and receive thoughtful critiques of artwork.

The Field Workshops

June 11 | 6:30pm - 8:30pm

August 13 | 6:30pm - 8:30pm

$15/per session (each date is a unique session)

A peer-to-peer forum for artists to share work and exchange feedback, the fieldwork method reveals how each piece is perceived by others and fosters a detailed, efficient, and supportive exchange. Insightful and stimulating critiques are guided by an experienced facilitator.

Critique Night

June 27 // Sketch Books | 6pm - 8pm

July 25 // Writing for the Artist | 6pm - 8pm

August 29 // Photographing Artwork | 6pm - 8pm

Free

This monthly peer-to-peer critique is free and held on the last Wednesday of each month. Bring one to three pieces of original artwork (finished or in-progress) and receive constructive feedback from fellow artists. Discussions will revolve around conceptual thinking and specific media practices. Come prepared with questions for feedback.

private instructions

Private lessons are available in a wide variety of visual art media for kids, teens, and adults. Classes can be arranged for individuals, couples, or a small group of no more than four students.

Instructors will customize lessons to meet your goals. Rates vary by instructor, selected medium, and class size.

custom classes & corporate offerings

From bridal showers to company retreats, Kimball Art Center offers a number of creative group activities for team building, client recognition, or celebrating a special occasion with a group of friends.

Kimball Art Center will tailor an art class to your needs and budget. Custom classes are available for groups of 5-12 people.

TO SCHEDULE A CUSTOM CLASS OR PRIVATE INSTRUCTION,
PLEASE CALL 435-649-8882 OR EMAIL EDUCATION@KIMBALLARTCENTER.ORG.

At the Kimball Art Center, all classes and workshops are taught by professional, practicing artists with teaching experience and a personal investment in art education. Curriculum is carefully crafted to inspire, educate, and foster an appreciation for visual art.

Students will enjoy expert instruction and personalized attention in a welcoming and accessible classroom environment.

Most classes are designed for adults at least 17 years of age. Exceptions can be made on a case-by-case basis by emailing the Kimball Art Center's education department at: education@kimballartcenter.org.
